

Please do not mandate copy protection for hdtv. I feel very strongly that I have the right to record and timeshift tv shows for my personal use at home. This copy protection would hurt customers and in the long run will not help major studios make more money. Thanks for your time